

Student Code of Conduct for Online Learning

All Tomahawk students are expected to follow the highest standards of honesty and integrity. Online academic integrity depends on mutual trust between instructors and students. Any student who attempts to cheat, plagiarize, falsify information, or receive credit for work he or she did not do will be considered guilty of dishonest behavior and will be dealt with accordingly by the instructor, Coach, and the WVS administration.

The following are examples of some, but not all, acts that are considered dishonest behavior.

1. Plagiarism is the act of representing another's ideas, words, expressions, or data in writing or presentation without properly acknowledging the source.
2. Submitting work through the use of another person's password/login is considered dishonest behavior. Student logins/passwords are confidential information that should not be shared with others. Any assignments, work, or projects posted while using another student's login will be considered plagiarism.
3. Cheating (intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized material, assistance, or study aids in any academic work). Cheating includes when a student copies another student's work and then submits it as his or her own work.
4. Performing work or taking an examination for another student OR having another person perform work or take an examination.
5. Falsification and/or misrepresentation of data by submitting false data or sources.
6. Computer crimes include damaging computer programs, hacking, constructing viruses, introducing viruses into a system, or copying programs.
7. Inappropriate use of email, discussion forums, or synchronous chat rooms (Elluminate™).

If a student engages in academic dishonesty, the infraction will be reported to the Coach/school by the WVS instructor or Tomahawk Teacher, whoever is assigned to the course. The school will discipline the student according to its local policy. If the student's behavior threatens the safety of the learning environment, the WVS administration reserves the right to implement disciplinary action without the local school's approval. The Coach/mentor will decide the consequences for the student and communicate them to the instructor. Possible consequences could include:

- Loss of grade points
- Removal from the course
- Failure to receive credit for the course.

We have read and we do understand and agree to the above policy.
